Munich American Re Appoints Life Insurance and Reinsurance Veteran to Lead Underwriting and Medical Departments

Atlanta, September 2, 2008 — Munich American Reassurance Company, one of the leading life reinsurance companies in the United States, announced the appointment of Bill Moore as Vice President – Underwriting and Medical.

“Munich American is in the midst of a period of revitalization and change, especially in our approach to underwriting life insurance risks,” said Lloyd Steinke, Executive Vice President. “Bill is uniquely suited through his background and experience to lead our underwriting and medical departments through this transformation.”

Mr. Moore comes to Munich American with 28 years of underwriting and operational management experience in both life insurance and life reinsurance organizations. He has managed several underwriting departments through periods of rapid growth and change, successfully implementing new processes and technologies to improve both productivity and risk selection.

Mr. Steinke said, “Bill is a highly respected industry veteran with a track record of proven leadership and innovation that will help us address our clients’ needs across the United States. We are very pleased to have him at the helm of our underwriting and medical operation.”
